

Opening prayer

Holy God,

We declare anew this morning that you are here.

We worship you for your mighty work of creation and salvation.

Every desert and valley is being refreshed by your love.

Every hand and knee is being strengthened by your grace.

Every eye is being opened and every tongue loosened by your joy.

Help us to be strong and fearless as we wait for the coming of Jesus.

Lead us into your way of holiness.

Revive us this morning as worship you.

In the name of Jesus we pray.

Amen.
